The Lights ON Ceremony & Fireworks Display
Sunday December 10th, 8:30pm - 9pm

The 2017 Lights of Lobethal Festival will be officially "Switched on". This year's special guests, two amazing characters from Beauty & The Beast, will flick the switch that marks the start of the lights festival. This is then followed by a spectacular fireworks display! (Best viewing location is out the front of the Nativity scene)

Living Nativity
Nightly in front of the Lutheran Church Main St
December 10th - 23rd

First show 8:50pm - 9:10pm
Second show 9:20pm - 9:40pm

The first performance on open night is later as it follows the fireworks at 9pm. The Living Nativity is a live re-enactment of the birth of Jesus. This includes a new born baby, local adults, children and live animals. It is all set in a unique stable setting that is proudly presented by the Hills Christian Churches.
